Leicester Neptune swimmers were truly golden this weekend, scoring a clear team win in the Oadby and Wigston SC's Mayor's Trophy at Enderby Leisure Centre. This was followed up by Chelsea McKay reaching her first Midland ASA Championships & Age Groups final, and then coming from behind with a mature, calculated swim to win gold in the 200m Fly. The weekend was capped by first place scored by Jacquette Barnett in the Windsor 3K open water event.

For the first time in over 15 years the Leicester Neptune diddy A team qualified for the A Final of the Leicestershire Diddy League.

This is a great achievement and we wish all the best for them in the Final. Come on Diddies!!!

Fixtures

15th Age group Champs – at DMU (Warm up at 2:30)

28th Diddy league Final - A team at Braunstone/ B team at Enderby (6:00 Warm up)

Email addresses

Dear All

I currently have an email distribution list for important LNSC communication, some of these are not current email addresses or in other cases I do not have an email address at all.

We want you to be kept up to date with LNSC and as much of the clubs communication is now coming out through email, if you are a paid up member of LNSC and have not received emails, such as the latest Newsletter or an Age Group Entry Form, please can you update your contact details with me at membership@LNSC.org.uk

Thank you
Sue Sutton
